

Out The Box Master Movers Newsletter

Hello everyone and welcome to the launch edition of the Master Movers International quarterly newsletter!

Although we're not strangers to most of you; (we've probably moved you, your family or your business at least once before) as this is our first issue we believe that introductions are in order. Master Movers Inter/National has been safely and professionally moving families and businesses around South Africa and around the world since 1991. Our branches are conveniently located across South Africa and all have secure modular storage facilities available. We are also proud to be the ONLY Level 1 BEE accredited moving company in South Africa-why move with anyone else?

We know that your time is limited; after all, you're a mover and a shaker, aren't you? That is why we promise to keep our newsletters relevant, informative and brief. Every quarter we will update you on developments in our industry and also share interesting information about moving-related matters- and we promise to keep it short ! Now that we have taken care of the introductions, let's get on with the fun stuff, shall we?

Moving In A New Direction

DID YOU KNOW?

Johannesburg has been ranked as the 8th cheapest city in the world for expatriates, according to the Cost of Living Standards Survey from Mercer Human Resource Consulting.

Everyone knows how great their home looks with some new accessories and a fresh coat of paint, so we decided to redecorate our "home" too. We're thrilled to introduce you to our revamped website www.mastermovers.co.za . The new website not only has information about the services we offer, promotions and upcoming events; we've also added a great new section where we'll be posting useful information about relocating and decorating your new space. So what are you waiting for, point your mouse at www.mastermovers.co.za and tell us what you think!

Moving Mountains- News from Cape Town

The Joburg Master Movers team rocked the Homemakers' Expo held at the Northgate Dome in February. As always, our bright red Master Movers balloons were a hit with parents and kiddies alike and delighted tots could be seen sporting their floating toys all over the Expo. In case you missed the action, our photographer was on hand to snap the action.

Why not join our Facebook page and be the first to know of other Master Movers events, promotions and expos we'll be exhibiting at. Join us and be moved!

Moving In The Right Direction

In business, as in life, making contact with the right person is often the key to success. Our newsletter aims to share moving-related information with individuals, families and businesses that are on the move. We'll keep you informed about a host of moving-related topics ranging from furniture maintenance to décor news and useful information about other cultures for those relocating overseas. If in future you would rather not receive our newsletters, please follow the link at the bottom of the newsletter to unsubscribe- we'll be sad to see you move on without us!

In Our Next Issue

Whew! We've managed to pack plenty of information into this month's newsletter! We've already started putting together our next newsletter, so keep an eye out for it in July- where we'll be revitalising the soccer spirit and launching our new eco-friendly range of moving materials among other things, so there's plenty to look forward to!

Until next time, keep moving!
